A modern, minimalist living space. In the foreground, a wide wooden staircase with a glass railing leads up. To the left, a kitchen area is visible with a white countertop and a sink. In the center, a dining table with chairs is set up. To the right, a living area features a grey sofa, a wooden coffee table, and a fireplace with a fire burning. Large windows with curtains provide a view of the city. The ceiling has a modern, multi-bulb chandelier.
